

Experiment Procedure

MAXIMILIAN DAVID

s1madavi 1349951

maximilian.david@uni-bayreuth.de

February 6, 2023

- The participant arrives
- The participant reads the study info
- The participant reads and fills out the consent form
- The participant fills in the demographics questionnaire
- The participant completes the first timed assembly either in VR or in real life (Before starting with the VR assembly, the participant receives a detailed introduction for the VR controls)
- The participant fills in the corresponding part of the questionnaire
- The participant completes the second timed assembly
- The participant fills in the corresponding part of the questionnaire
- The participant builds freely for up to five minutes in the same condition they started with for the timed assembly
- The participant fills in the corresponding part of the questionnaire
- The participant freely builds in the remaining condition
- The participant fills in the corresponding part of the questionnaire
- The first verbal interview is conducted
- The VR version with additional features is introduced to the participant and thoroughly introduced to all its features
- The participant completes a timed assembly within this condition
- The participant freely builds for up to five minutes within this condition
- The participant fills in the final part of the questionnaire
- The final verbal interview is conducted
- The participant receives their payment and signs the payment form
- The participant leaves
- Video and audio recordings are analyzed